WHAT'S
Next?

I see not a step before me
as I tread on another year
. . . and what looks dark
in the distance, may brighten as I draw near.

WHAT'S Next?

Every student entering Juniata arrives with vivid hopes and dreams of what's to come, what's next. Throughout their career at Juniata, they will make choices that will shape their future. And as Seniors, they are faced by the new challenges present in the "real" world. Eagerly, they advance into this world, forever asking, "What's next?"

"Tomorrow is the most important thing in life. Comes to us at midnight very clean. It's perfect when it arrives and it puts itself in our hands and hopes we've learnt something from yesterday."

- John Wayne

Shoemaker in the Fall.

"Never let the future disturb you. You will meet it, if you have to, with the same weapons of reason which today arm you against the present." - Marcus Aurelius

The luminaries light the pathway to Oller during the Christmas Service.

"People are afraid of the future, of the unknown. If a man faces up to it, and takes the dare of the future, he can have some control over his destiny. That's an exciting idea to me, better than waiting with everybody else to see what's going to happen."
- John H. Glenn, Jr.

Middle: Kelly Frye, Graig Miller, and John Yorke listen to Silent Night during the Christmas Service.
Bottom: Faculty versus Seniors, this time out of class.*

Ellis Hall during International Week.

As we Seniors peek around the edges of our final year, we see the world spread out before us. What's next? That only depends on where we look. - Patrick J. Wilshire

WHAT'S
Next?

PARENTS' WEEKEND

Parents... the ones who move us into our rooms as freshmen, listen to all of our college complaints, and provide the financial, moral, and emotional support that we need, as well as providing us with those little "extras" that help us get us through our college years.

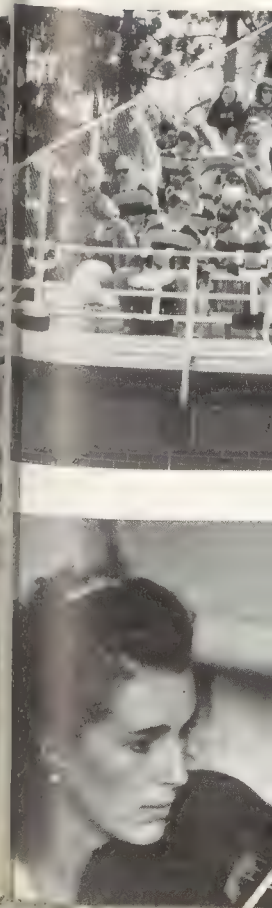

As we become older and more mature throughout our years here at Juniata, we tend to become more independent of our parents. On one weekend a year though, we always stop to celebrate our parents and all that they have done for us over the years. Though we are older and wiser, we do not forget those that have helped us to achieve our goals and support all that we do.

On Parents' Weekend this year many activities were held for students and their parents. Saturday was a filled with lots of excitement for all to enjoy. Oller Lawn provided a perfect spot for the Artists on the Hill and all of their crafts. Nearby in Beegley Library, the annual book sale was held. A picnic lunch on South Lawn provided not only a lot of food, but also a place for students and their parents to take a break from the activities of the day. On Sunday, breakfast and an all-campus worship service concluded the weekend of recognizing our parents.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming is the time of year when we welcome back old friends and alumni. Every school celebrates Homecoming in its own unique way. Here at Juniata a new tradition was started last year in which we recognize a select group of students who exceed the realm of the typical college student when it comes to community service. This recognition takes place during the halftime show in place of the traditional homecoming court.

In addition to this, Juniata carries on many other traditions. Festivities start during the week with the annual Lip Sync contest between the classes, won by the sophomore class. Friday night's pep rally was the chance to pump up not only the football team, but also the many supportive fans for the big game on Saturday. After the cheerleaders pumped up the crowd, the classes entertained the fans with their competitive skits.

Saturday's activities included the Homecoming Parade, as well as tailgating festivities for the home sport events, including football, cross country, and an alumni soccer game.

MOUNTAIN DAY

The alarm clock rings, and once again you're off to the usual boring schedule. But wait - what's that sign hanging on the bathroom door? Could it be saying that you don't really have to go to your classes today? Yes, it's Mountain Day! It's time for good times, good food, and lots of good old sun, all of which were found at this year's Mountain Day, held at Canoe Creek. While the various residence halls battled it out on the football field, those not participating found many other things to do, such as playing volleyball, throwing frisbee, snapping pictures, sunbathing, and taking a refreshing dip in the nearby water. A picnic lunch was provided by Baker Refectory for all who needed to stock up on energy to make it through the events of the day. To end the day, the classes pulled away in tug of war, with the senior girls taking the overall win.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Once again Student Government continued to accomplish goals in two main areas. First, in representing the needs and concerns of the student body to the administration. This was most apparent during the year when Student Government examined the issues and concerns associated with the college using an Indian as its mascot.

Secondly, the Student Government continued to provide numerous services to the Juniata community. Student Directories were sold, refrigerators leased, and convenience loans provided for all students. Additionally, the Student Government sponsored a raffle, the proceeds of which were donated to the United Way.

The Band Boosters is a student run organization that is headed by four officers who are elected each year by the members of the band. The main function of the Band Boosters is to organize the pep and jazz bands, which are also student run, and to set up fund raisers for the band. The pep band performs at basketball games and occasionally at away football games, while the jazz band performs mainly at coffeehouses and band concerts. The focus of these groups is to provide people who have an interest in music with a way to perform while having fun, and showing support for their classmates.

The submissions (artwork, poetry, and short fiction) come from the campus at large, and then the Kvasir staff puts it all together. The magazine is published each semester and provides a way for aspiring writers or just creative writers to publish their works.

FRESHMAN STEERING COMMITTEE

The Freshman what? The Freshman Steering Committee is made up of four freshmen who are elected at the beginning of the fall semester. This group leads their class in organizing activities such as Homecoming class competition, helping with Madrigal decorations, and of course All Class Night. This year the freshman class took fourth place in both Homecoming and All Class Night.

SOPHOMORE CLASS OFFICERS

The 1991-92 academic year was definitely a great one for the Class of 1994. During Homecoming Weekend they came out of nowhere and won the class competitions hands down. They also took first place for All Class Night. Their trademark throughout the year became Pizza Parties, and they caught a lot of slack for it.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Finally, the Class of 1992!!! The Seniors had an awesome year. Taking second place in both Homecoming and All Class Night, the Seniors worked hard and had a blast. The Senior Class Officers once again sold fruit and snack baskets for finals week. They also organized the Senior Week activities: The Senior Dinner at Louie's, the infamous Booze Cruise, and The Bar Walk.

The Alfarata Staff

I would like to thank the following people for their help, support and patience with me through this whole ordeal: Audra Mumaw, Craig Miller, Kristie D'Amico, Joe Scialabba, Brenda Roll, Abe Orlick from Davor, Bev and Renee from Josten's, those seniors who contributed pictures for the senior section, and especially my folks and friends. I think an apology is due to all of you that have waited so long for this book. I can only place the blame on myself for letting it go so long. I was burned out from working on this book for so long. I only wish I could have had more say in the choosing the theme and layout of this book, but I thought I would only be working in the capacity of a senior section editor. I did not foresee the possibility of ever taking over as editor half way into the year, which was one of the biggest mistakes I ever made. I know this is my chance to @#*%! and complain but I'll pass on that. I just want to put this behind me and get on with my life.

What would Juniata be without teamwork?

Fred and Sam doing the juniors' rendition of running of the arch.

The amazing thing was that Chris didn't even touch the ground.

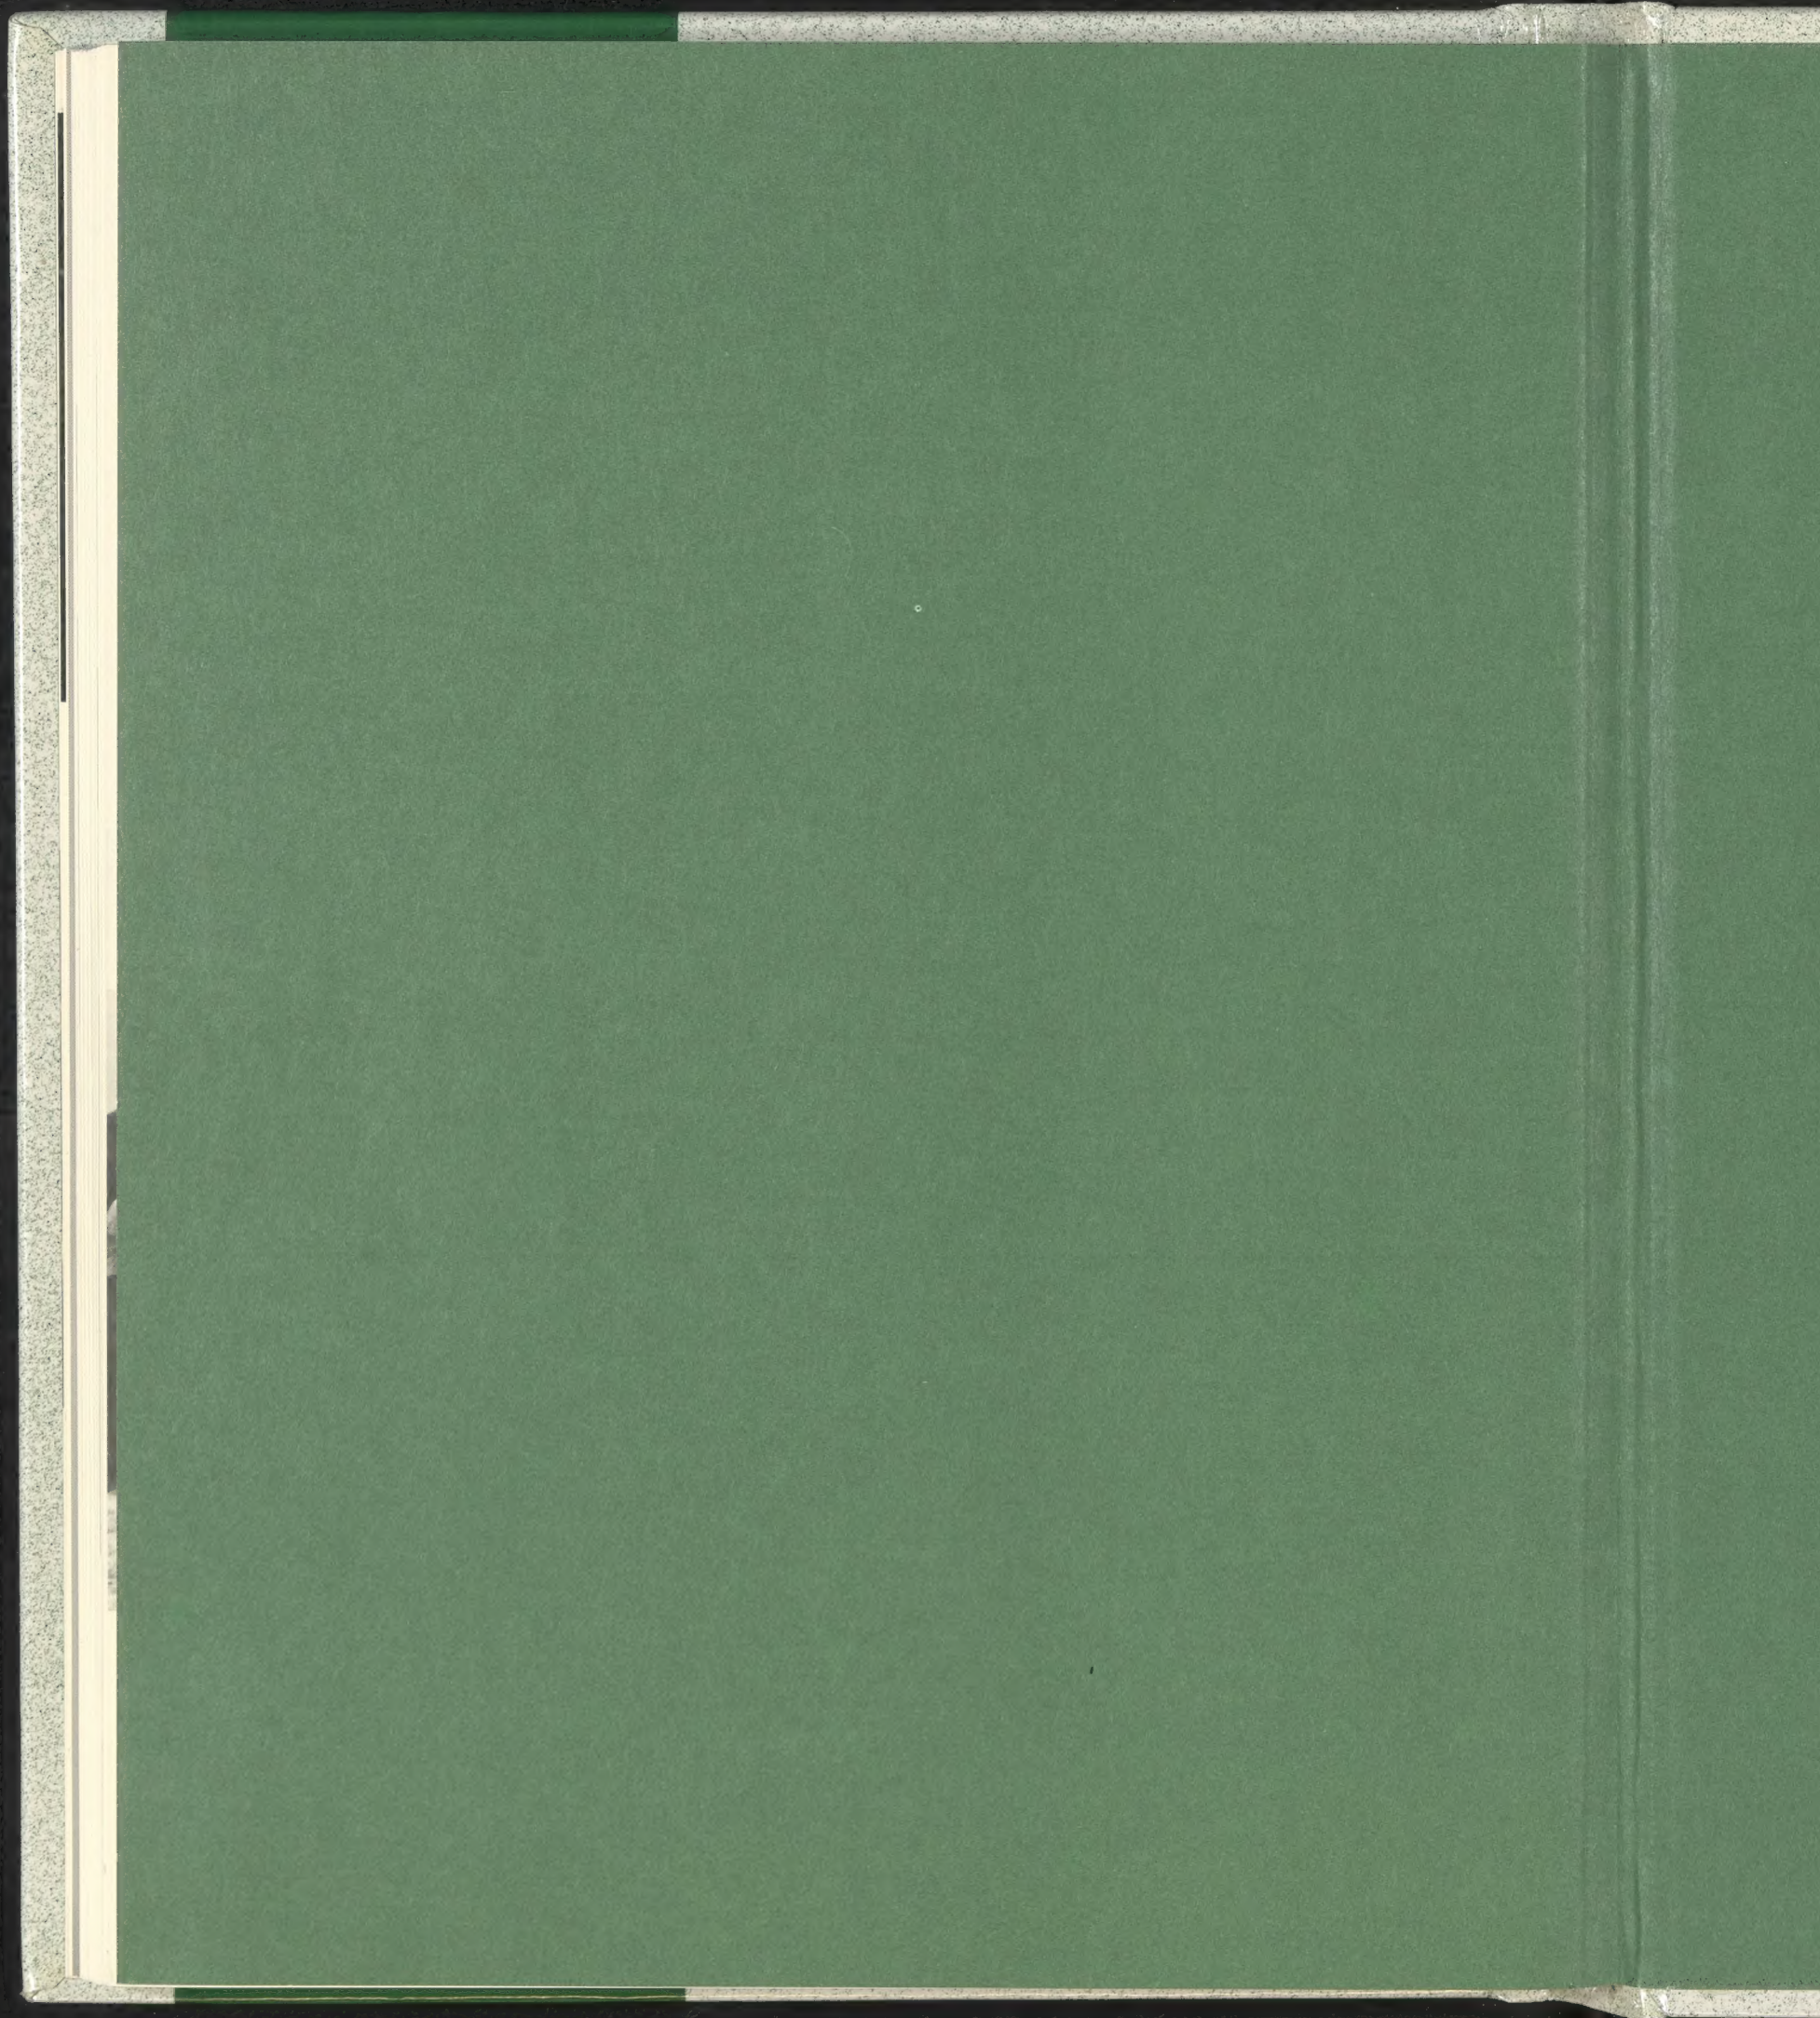

No, Brett, we couldn't believe it either.

See ya...and goodnight ya all

I see not a step before me
as I tread on another year
. . . and what looks dark
in the distance, may brighten as I draw near.
